NEARBY PLACES TO VISIT

Hari Mandir (2 km): The temple has been a tourist attraction for a long period of time. Hari Mandir of Nalbari has been dedicated to Lord Krishna, a form of Lord Vishnu. The temple has been established in the year 1965. It is centrally located at the town of Nalbari which makes it extremely easy to visit from any direction. The temple has lots of historical events and folklores attached to it. Hari Mandir has earned its reputation especially due to the annual Ras Mahotsav Festival.

Billeswar Devalaya (13 km): This is situated in the village Belsor, Nalbari. The Billeswar temple is an ancient Shiva temple with intricate architecture. This temple is believed to have been built 500 years ago. Buffalo sacrifice during Durga Puja is an age-old tradition and ritual in this temple.

Balilesa Shree Shree Kali Devalaya (4 km): It is believed to have been built by the Ahom King, Siba Singha (1718-1744). This Kali Mandir situated at Ballilesa village is a living Sakti Peeth. A Kali Pukhuri covering 8 Pura of land is located in the temple premises. It is situated in a beautiful location on river bank of Pagaldia.

Madan Kamdev (43 km): This is also referred to as the "Khajuraho of Assam". It is an archaeological site located near the town of Baihata Chariali in the Kamrup district of Assam. This historical site is renowned for its medieval ruins and intricate sculptural art, resembling the famous Khajuraho monuments in central India.

Hayagriva Madhava Temple (26 km): The Hayagriva Madhava Temple is dedicated to Lord Vishnu. It is considered to be an important pilgrimage site for followers of Hinduism. The temple is believed to be associated with the legend of Lord Buddha, as it is said that the idol of Lord Buddha was hidden in the temple to protect it during a period of iconoclastic attacks. The temple reflects a blend of Hindu and Buddhist architectural styles.

Kamakhya Temple (55 km): It is situated on Neelachal mountain of Guwahati, the capital city of Assam. This temple is dedicated to goddess Kamakya. This temple is built on a hill and has great tantric significance. Kamakhya temple is considered as one of the oldest and most revered centre to achieve Tantra sidhi. It is also famously known for the annual Ambubachi mela, a festival to celebrate the menstruation of the goddess Kamakhya.
