

BACHELOR OF COMPUTER APPLICATION (BCA)

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

After completing the three-year BCA curriculum, students will have the following skills:

- Effectively design computer-based systems by understanding, analysing, and developing computer programmes in the fields of web design, networking, software engineering, e-Commerce, Web development, Big Data , IoT, Python, Java etc.
- Work as a system engineer, software tester, web developer, system administrator, junior programmer, or in another IT-related role.
- Use open source programming environments and standard software engineering processes and tactics to produce software projects that yield high-quality products for commercial success.

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES

- Prepare for a potentially lucrative and employable career in computer applications.
- Continue your education by pursuing a degree in computer science or applications.
- Enter the Indian and international software markets as a freelancer.
- Fulfil the industrial standards' requirements.