NEWSLETTER

From The Desk of Principal

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome you to this edition of News Letter of Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Nalbari College, Nalbari. The News Letter, often referred as a genre of grey literature, though have a limited scope to have in depth information but it's wide circulation is primarily attributed to its popular face of summarizing news in bundle to share.

Over the years we have been publishing this News Letter to update and bean you into the approaches that we have adopted for excellence of our teaching learning process. Through this endeavor we as a premier site of higher education in lower Assam since 1945 celebrate the achievement of our students, faculty and our beloved institution. Last two years were exceptionally challenging years for all of us due to COVID - 19 pandemic crises. It has affected the human being regardless of nationality, level of education, income or gender.

Our Core Values

Vidyayaa Vindate Amritam
(Scholarship Offers Eternality)

- Pursuit of excellence through student centric approach
- Employability through development of skills
- Reaching out to the unreached

This crisis on one hand while exposes many inadequacies and inequality existed in our educational system but at the same time it unveils the prospect of virtual mode of teaching learning activities in a more appropriate way than ever. When world remain standstill, we tried to maintain the vibrancy of our academic atmosphere through different online activities. We have organized webinar, weeklong online workshops, lectures etc during this period of time. Our student is our prime concern. By engaging them continuously with their online classes, our faculties have not only monitored their academic development but also mentoring them during these hours of crises. I took the opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to all the stakeholders of our institute for their timely support and cooperation in all matter of our concern. At last I would like to deliver my warm regard to our entire predecessors whose sacrifices and contribution enable us to stand here today. Hope we will meet again on some another pages of our thought THANK YOU

Stay safe and healthy

From the Desk of IQAC Co-ordinator

This newsletter is an effort to document and highlight the various academic activities and co-curricular activities undertaken by the institution. The newsletter would certainly give the readers with a fair idea about the various academic and co-curricular activities and achievements of our faculty members and students. I hope the activities of faculty members & students will certainly encourage the other members to work with more actively. The journey ahead is full of challenges. But I hope the hard work, sincerity and passion of all the stakeholders will help our institution to grow and succeed in future.

As an institution, Nalbari College is well aware of its strength and opportunities and at the same time is sincerely concerned of its weakness and threats. The experience collected from its long standing existence is the inventory of strength of the college which empowers the institution to formulate apposite measures to translate the short comings into positive outcomes. Publication of this digital issue of the Newsletter along with a few hard copies is a green approach of our institution. Best wishes to one and all.
